Have you been Hospitalized (as defined below) during the 90 days preceding the date of this enrollment form?

Employee
 Yes No

If the answer to the Hospitalization question is "Yes," a Statement of Health form is required for each person answering "Yes."

Hospitalized means admission for inpatient care in a hospital; receipt of care in a hospice facility; intermediate care facility, or long term care facility, or receipt of the following treatments wherever performed: chemotherapy, radiation therapy, or dialysis.

DECLARATION SECTION

Each person signing below declares that all the information given in this enrollment form, including any medical questions, is true and complete to the best of his/her knowledge and belief. Each person understands that this information will be used by MetLife to determine his or her insurability.

The employee declares that he or she is actively at work on the date of this enrollment form. For any contributory life insurance only, the employee has been actively at work for at least 20 hours during the 7 calendar days preceding that date. If Hospitalized during the 90-day period preceding the date of this enrollment form, such insurance will not take effect until MetLife receives evidence of good health satisfactory to MetLife.

For Changes Requested After Initial Enrollment Period Expires

I understand that if life coverage is not elected, or if the maximum coverage is not elected, evidence of good health satisfactory to MetLife may be required to elect or increase such coverage after the initial enrollment period has expired. Coverage will not take effect, or it will be limited, until notice is received that MetLife has approved the coverage or increase.

For Payroll Deduction Authorization By the Employee

I authorize my employer to deduct the required contributions from my pay for the coverage requested in this enrollment form. This authorization applies to such coverage until I rescind it in writing.

Fraud Warning:

If you reside in or are applying for insurance under a policy issued in one of the following states, please read the applicable warning.

New York [only applies to Accident and Health Benefits (AD&D/Disability/Dental)]: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime, and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation.

Florida: Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or an application containing any false, incomplete or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

Massachusetts: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance containing any materially false information or conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, and may subject such person to criminal and civil penalties.

New Jersey: Any person who includes any false or misleading information on an application for an insurance policy is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

Oklahoma: Any person who knowingly, and with intent to injure, defraud or deceive any insurer, makes any claim for the proceeds of an insurance policy containing any false, incomplete or misleading information is guilty of a felony.
